

Te Whanau O Waipareira Trust are proud to be a member of the National Maori Coalition of Cancer Services, and fully support the upcoming National Maori Cancer Care forum:

NATIONAL MĀORI CANCER FORUM 2009
Revolution of Cancer Care
FOR MĀORI AND WHĀNAU

12 – 14 August
The Heritage Hotel Rotorua

This event will create a forum for sharing knowledge, skills and expertise that will address current issues faced by Māori with cancer. High calibre indigenous national and international speakers who will educate, inspire, raise consciousness and provoke your thinking. The National Māori Cancer Service Coalition is committed to advocating boldly and proactively to the needs of Māori and Whānau affected by cancer. The Forum looks to bring together Māori Health Practitioners, Whānau, Community groups, Academics and Researchers to discuss and share information and provide an invaluable contribution to future work in cancer services.

The Forum is by Māori for all, and in observance of the kaupapa to share knowledge, skills and expertise all peoples are encouraged to attend.

Details of the programme are available at www.maoricancer.co.nz or contact jane@conference.co.nz for further details.
